THE THREE FISHES

Now a legend in these parts, this was the first Ribble Valley Inn to open, sourcing ingredients from our local food heroes and using them to conjure up traditional regional classics...but with an inspired and contemporary twist. The result...an instant hatful of top awards - a trend that continues with the AA Regional Food Award 2007/8.

Opening hot on the heels of the Fishes, The Highwayman has continued the policy of keeping everything local...but this time calling on the best of Lancashire, Yorkshire and Cumbria. And it worked! This second Ribble Valley Inn has followed the award-winning habit, picking up the Good Food Guide 'Pub Newcomer of the Year 2008'.

the clog AND billycock

The Clog has been part of Pleasington's history for over 150 years. But its real heyday as the heart of the village is only just beginning, thanks to a new lease of life following a £1.3 million refurbishment! This hat-trick for Ribble Valley Inns is now open... and already building a delicious reputation.
